

Call for Papers for the
9th Annual Michigan State Undergraduate Linguistics Conference (MSULC)
Friday, April 20, 2018

qUALMS (the q Undergraduate Association for Linguistics at Michigan State), in association with the Linguistics Department, is pleased to announce the ninth annual Michigan State Undergraduate Linguistics Conference (MSULC). MSULC is an opportunity to showcase student research currently taking place at Michigan State in linguistics, constructed broadly. We accept submissions in all language-related research areas.

qUALMS is proud to announce that this year's keynote address will be given by

Mina Hirzel
Former MSU Linguistics Undergraduate
Baggett Fellow at University of Maryland, College Park
Graduate Student in Linguistics at University of Maryland, College Park

If you wish to participate in the conference, please submit a 250-word abstract for either a poster or an oral presentation. Send your abstracts, by email, to msulc.2018@gmail.com no later than March 16, 2018. Within the body of the email, please include the author(s), research area, advisor(s), and whether or not you wish to be considered for a poster or an oral presentation (10 minutes). There are a limited number of oral presentation slots. Finally, we invite all students to attend the conference itself and to learn about the linguistics research happening at MSU.

MSULC is thankful for support from MSU's Innovation Hub, The Office of the Provost (Undergraduate Education); the College of Arts and Letters; the Department of Linguistics and Germanic, Slavic, Asian, and African Languages; Cognitive Science Program; the Michigan State Honors College; and the Michigan State University Alumni Association.

Prizes will be awarded for the best presentations!

Emily Skupin
MSULC Chair
