

GLEEFUL 2019 Call for Papers

The q Undergraduate Association for Linguistics at Michigan State (qUALMS) is pleased to announce the ninth Annual Great Lakes Expo for Experimental and Formal Undergraduate Linguistics (GLEEFUL). GLEEFUL aims to bring together undergraduate linguistics to present high quality, original research to their peers in order to gain experience and a greater appreciation for the many ways to study linguistics and language-related fields.

Additionally, qUALMS is pleased to announce our continuation of our workshop series for GLEEFUL. These workshops are aimed at undergraduates looking to improve their skill set by exposing them to current techniques and ways to approach linguistic problems.

April 12-14th in East Lansing, Michigan

Keynote Speaker:

Jeff Lidz
University of Maryland

Workshops

Corpus building and Variability
Christina Tortora
Graduate Center, CUNY

The phonetics of phonological variation
Silvina Bongiovanni
Michigan State University

More information is available on the conference website at:

<https://sites.google.com/view/gleeful2019>

We invite 1-page anonymous abstracts (500 words) for 10-15 minute presentations or posters from any area of linguistics. Abstract submission will be done electronically through EasyChair at:

<https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=gleeful9>

Deadline for submission of abstract: February 25th 2019

Abstracts will be reviewed, and participants will be notified by the first week of March.

Thank you!

Darby Grachek
GLEEFUL Chair, qUALMS

Sarah Sirna
President, qUALMS