

THE WRITING CENTER @ MSU PRESENTS

"THE WORK OF WRITING NEVER ENDS:

Using Students' Right to Their Own Language to Bridge Writing Across the Curriculum and Diversity and Inclusion Professional Development Opportunities"

DR. STACI PERRYMAN-CLARK

Associate Professor, Department of English
Western Michigan University

November 7, 2019

6:30–8:30 p.m. in Snyder C20

RCAH Theater

Reception to Follow

Drawing from her research and experiences designing and building partnerships between WAC, faculty development, and diversity and inclusion programming, Perryman-Clark describes the ways in which such collaborations can forward the mission of the CCCC's Students' Right to Their Own Language Resolution, supporting enrollment and retention efforts while also enhancing diversity and inclusion initiatives at the institutional level.